His death date was found on page 12 of Salina Kennedy's record of deaths occurring on the res. Margaret Seneca submitted many Indian names to the Arizona Temple for their temple work to be done, but had most of them living in the country of Chautauqua, and sometimes would not have the birthplace correct or not in the right township.

HUSBAND James COOPER-264

NOTES:

James was listed as the husband of Hannah Silverheels on page 15 of the Petition entered in the Orphans Court in Warren Pa, concerning Polly Logan's will of 1871, the only surviving offspring of Cornplanter (John O'Bail alias Abeel). He and Hannah had several children, on page 8 in the 1875 NY state census for Cattaraugus Co, he is living on the AIR, with Alfred Jimeson, no relationship given, birthplace is Allegany Indian Res. Hannah and children on listed on page 12 in the same census. Evidently he married another woman by the name of Lucy Shongo who had a son Seneca Purse, age 21 in 1875, page 6, a musician, and a son Willy John, age 5. In the 1879 Seneca Indian roll, page 80, a son Willard John Cooper is age 9, living in Red House. 1886 AIR roll, page 5 they have a son named William age 14. According to the record of his daughter Mary Cooper who married James Jacobs, her father James was born in New York, listed on page 25B in the 1900 Catt Co federal census. Hiram, Lewis and Cyrus both living in the same area and listed on same census, say that their father was born in PA. In the 1892 William John, age 20 is the step-son of Frank T. Jimeson, who is married to Lucy, age 52 on page 76.

WIFE Hannah SILVERHEELS-449

NOTES:

Hannah was 46 in the 1875 NY State Census for Catt Co. The record is found on page 12 and gave the birthplace for all the children. However all their ages differ from that of the AIR rolls for the Senecas and usually the rolls are more accurate, thus roll accounts are used. Hannah had at least 7 children, and named two daughters Mary according to family history. I find no proof of this but did put in two Marys. Hannah was never listed with her husband James Cooper on the rolls or in the 1875 NY census, but in the will petition it is stated that she is the wife of James Cooper. In 1886 roll, age 59, page 6, son Cyrus 14 is with her.

HUSBAND Abraham SILVERHEELS-456

NOTES:

Abraham is given as the name of the man that Cornplanter's daughter JA-wa-juh married. This is one page 15 of the petition presented to the Warren Orphan Court PA to settle the estate of Cornplanter according to his daughter, Polly's will of 1871. An Abraham is listed as a resident of the Allegany Reservation in 1839 census, no age given, but he has 2 warriors, 1 woman and 3 daughters. Do not know if they are the same person. No other record has been found and his birth and marriage dates are guessed at from his daughter Hannah's age.

WIFE Ja-wa-juh ABEEL-458

NOTES:

Ja-wa-juh is the only name given to the daughter of Cornplanter (John O'Bail) (Abeel) who married Abraham Silverheels and had at least one child, Hannah. She divided the land of Cornplanter among all the living decendants of Cornplanter. Her birth date is just guessed at.

NOTES:

Wm is #5383 in the 1839 Seneca Indian census for the BCR, age 50, 7 boys and 4 girls (he must have been married twice), is also of the Wolf clan which is against the tribal laws and is a chief. In the History of Livingston Co, page 119 & 120, it tells of William going with a party of Senecas to Kansas to settle upon the lands there set apart for the N Y Indians. Several of the party contracted ship-fever on board a Missouri river steam boat. William was dissatisfied with the country and set out to return home but died on the way of consumption and was buried at Beaver, Ohio.

A Frank Caswell has taken the heads of the families on the reservations and had their temple work done, without getting ages or some members of the family.
